Slump in Copper Brokerage Firm Fails.

Boston, Dec. 13.—Some excitement was caused on the Stock Exchange this morning when it was announced that Wainwright Bros., a large brokerage house in this city, doing business for over a quarter of a century, had failed. The announcement was made on the Stock Exchange at noon and is the subject of conversation in financial centres this evening. No figures are given but it is known that the company is hopelessly involved. The failure was caused by a slump in copper, and other similar failures are hourly expected.

DISTRICT COURT.

Trial of Johnson for Complicity in Naco Hold-up—Other Minor Cases

TOMBSTONE, Dec. 13, 1901. The case of Wiley Morgan, charged with the murder of John Duncan, was called. Much interest was manifested in this case and a number of witnesses were present, but an important witness on each side was absent. An agreement between opposing counsel was reached that the case be continued for the term. It was stated by counsel that had the case been brought to trial on Monday, as the case was at first set, the trial could have proceeded to a conclusion, but during the continuance from day to day, in consequence of the prolonged trial of the Copper Queen tax case, the two witnesses referred to had absented themselves. Morgan has been out under bail of $10,000 for some months. He was here yesterday, accompanied by his wife and four young children, one still an infant. The family have the appearance of well-to-do ranchers. Morgan is said to have been in comfortable circumstances at the time of the killing of Duncan, but to have become well nigh impoverished by the expense attending his attempt to secure acquittal of the charge still pending against him.

The cases of J. S. Williams et al. vs. Martin O'Hare, and Martin O'Hare vs. C. A. Overlock were continued for the term.

The suit for divorce of George E. Talcott vs. Mary F. Talcott was dismissed on motion of plaintiff's attorney.

Case of Johnson & Harrington vs. George Quinn was dismissed, defendant paying accrued costs.

Sidney Johnson, charged with robbery, was placed on trial. O. Gibson having been appointed by the court to defend the alleged culprit. But little difficulty was experienced in securing a jury, which was an exceptionally intelligent one. Among them will be noticed several of our Bisbee friends. The list of the twelve men "good and true" is: Lewis Hunt, Charles H. Holtz, J. J. Brown, R. L. Armstrong, Jesse Jackson, H. E. Gardner, C. C. Finlayson, J. Jolly, W. E. Bailey, C. L. Blackburn, William Allison, James A. Lamb. Johnson is a mere boy in appearance. He claims to be but sixteen years of age, but looks older. He is by no means intelligent looking and was dressed poorly and far from neatly. He is charged with having been implicated in the hold-up of the Big Adobe saloon in Naco on the night of July 23d. He escaped at the time, as did the actual perpetrator of the hold-up. The latter has not yet been captured, but Johnson was arrested by Sheriff Parks of Graham county a few weeks ago. The boy was taken to Naco and made a written confession of his participation in the hold-up, this confession being witnessed by Sheriff Lewis and Deputy Ellis of Naco.

W. A. White testified that on the night of the 23d of July last a masked man entered his saloon just as he was about to place the "bank" of the monte game into the safe. The money was in a sack and placed temporarily on the railing near the safe while he was opening the safe. The masked man had a pistol in his right hand. Reaching out his left hand he grabbed the sack saying, "I'll take this." He then fired his pistol and backed out of the front door.

O. L. Armstrong testified that in July he was employed on Ben Franks' ranch, a few miles from Bisbee; that on or about the 24th of July last Johnson came to the ranch in the evening and wanted to buy a saddle. The defendant bargained with one of the other men in the employ of Franks for his saddle, but did not take it then. The following morning Johnson returned to the ranch and wanted the saddle he had bargained for, but the owner then declined to sell. Afterward the prisoner bought my saddle and paid me one hundred adobe dollars for it and rode off.

For the defense Mr. Gibson put

Johnson on the stand to testify on his own behalf. He told his story clearly and coherently with apparent truthfulness. He stated that his age was sixteen years; that he had been traveling with a man in Mexico; that he had accompanied him to Naco; that he was a stranger in the country and looking for work; that he had ridden into Naco on the evening of the hold-up and had tied his horse to a wagon standing not far from the "Big Adobe" saloon; that late in the night he was looking for his traveling companion and meeting a Mexican he inquired of him as to the possible whereabouts of his erstwhile companion. The Mexican replied that he had gone up to the big adobe saloon to "hold it up." Believing this probable I went after my horse fearing that my late companion would ride him off. Just as I had mounted my horse I heard shots and immediately after the robber came up with the bag of money in his hand. He mounted the horse behind me and ordered me under threats of bodily injury to "pull out across the line and to be quick about it." I did "pull out," and after traveling about a mile and a half we stopped and the robber gave me three hundred adobe dollars as he said to pay for his ride and my Winchester rifle which he appropriated. Then we separated and I have never seen him since. Being an utter stranger and having been for a time the companion of the robber I was afraid to stay in or immediately near Naco, therefore I started for Clifton, and bought a saddle for one hundred adobe dollars. When I was taken to Naco under arrest I was assured of immunity from imprisonment if I would confess. This assurance was given me by Officer Ellis. The evidence being closed Mr. Land addressed the jury briefly being evidently of the impression that the case was so plainly established that no argument was necessary. Mr. Gibson followed with a lengthy argument for the defendant and made out from the boy's own story a very strong plea for his acquittal. The jury retired under the charge of Bailiff James M. Johnson, and were out all night.

FRIDAY'S PROCEEDINGS. The court was convened at 9:30 a. m. and the prisoners arraigned yesterday to plead to indictments were again arraigned and pleas entered. All pleaded not guilty.

Robert J. Winders, indicted for robbery in having robbed Fred Purley of $80, on Nov. 20, was arraigned. Winders is a young man of prepossessing appearance and well known here. A. R. English is his attorney. Winders was given the statutory time to plead. He is on bail.

At the time of closing the mail the jury in the Johnson case had not reported a verdict. Sheriff Lewis left for Phoenix this morning with a female patient for the insane asylum.

COURT JOTTINGS. The defendants arraigned Thursday morning to plead to indictments were: Frank Rintledge, assault with deadly weapon, asked statutory time allowed to enter plea; G. W. Swain appointed by the court as defendant's counsel.

Inez Lopez, grand larceny, asked time to enter plea; C. T. Clark appointed counsel.

Francisco O. Rojas, burglary, waived time and pleaded not guilty; case set for trial on the 14th.

Endefanzo Nera, burglary, asked time; A. R. English assigned as counsel.

Pabalo Fuentos, uttering forged check; Neale & Goodbody attorneys.

Manuel Flores, Arnulfo Valencia and Jesus Garcia, jointly indicted for robbery, asked time to plead, S. A. D. Upton assigned.

Ramona Cervantes, assault with deadly weapon; on bail and not appearing bench warrant was ordered issued.

Henry Wilson, burglary; on bail and not appearing bench warrant was ordered issued.

An attachment was ordered against Clinton Keller of Bisbee, who had been summoned as trial juror but had not appeared.

The grand jury made a partial report through their foreman, Ben Heney, on Thursday.

Charges against R. Davidson, Oliver Heap, Epitito Lacaro and John Farrell were ignored and the court ordered their discharge.

The grand jury also reported seven additional indictments.

The court was kept open till late in the evening expecting a verdict in the Johnson case, but at about 9:30 p. m. the jury informed the bailiff that no agreement had been reached and they wanted to sleep over it. Beds were furnished and in a few minutes all was quiet on the court floor of the court house. This morning argument was resumed in the jury room at an early hour and continued incessantly.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

Constable Hudspeth's Room Plundered at Naco—Shots Exchanged—Mining Men Going to Sonora.

NACO, Arizona, Dec. 13. James Pitchard, a prominent Colorado mining man is in town. He leaves for Sonora where he will prospect for a few months in behalf of clients who are desirous of speculating in this district.

Miss Coulson and Miss White arrived from Tucson the other day and are engaged at the dining room of Hotel Naco. The young ladies are an agreeable and very popular addition to Naco.

Travel between Naco and Sonora is increasing, the fame of the neighboring mining district to which Naco is the port of entry is causing a great influx of mining men and others.

The town has furnished quite a considerable quota to the crowd of witnesses, jurymen and others now in Tombstone.

A representative of the El Paso Herald has been in town the last few days. The gentleman is incidentally looking up the details of the killing of Will Cravens, and satisfied himself as to the circumstances of the hold up at Deel & Co's saloon on the 5th of November last. Every detail was thoroughly sifted and the newspaper man acknowledged that in the face of the positive facts he could not understand how any man could hold that young Cravens could have met any other fate than at the hands of the law.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Payne are now running the Naco restaurant having purchased same from T. E. Wilson.

The Naco postoffice has been greatly improved and enlarged. Mr. Goldman the postmaster, has built a room at the end of the store which gives thorough facilities and convenience for the public and postoffice officials.

An attempt was made Tuesday morning to rob Tom Hudspeth's house. Mr. Hudspeth is in Tombstone and his rooms were locked. About 3 o'clock the room was entered and an attempt made to plunder. A man rooming in one of the front rooms, put his head out to see what was occurring, when he was promptly shot at. He returned the fire and the robbers hurriedly left.

W. W. McKim of Bisbee came in Tuesday for Sonora.

Jas. Manders, a California mining man, arrived Tuesday and left for Sonora where he will investigate various properties on behalf of his clients who intend investing in Sonora mines.

Col Morgan returned Tuesday from his mine La Mexican. He reports work going on at the property and the mine showing up to his thorough satisfaction.

Memorial Service For President McKinley.

Washington, Dec. 13.—A joint committee of both houses of Congress met today and arranged for memorial services for the late President Wm. McKinley. After an effective speech by ex-Senator Fairbanks, who spoke tenderly and touchingly of the late president, the committee agreed upon Secretary of State Hay as the orator for the occasion, the date of the ceremony was not definitely fixed. The Philippine tariff bill was reported to the house today. After agreeing to debate the measure on next Tuesday the house adjourned until that day.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Two Men Killed at Bisbee West Mine Last Evening.

Shortly after six o'clock last night a fatal accident occurred at the Bisbee West mine in which Frank Bowman and Alex Duder lost their lives. The company had been hoisting water all day from their lower levels and the rope and guide had become wet and the cold weather froze the cross-head, and when Bowman and Duder had descended in the bucket down about 500 feet the frozen cross-head broke and gave way dropping the bucket and its two occupants over 600 feet below. The engineer quickly gave the alarm and Superintendent Dwight went down and brought up the two mangled forms of Bowman and Duder. A messenger was dispatched to Bisbee and notified Judge M. J. Brown, who summoned a coroner's jury and left for the scene of the accident.

In speaking of the accident last night Superintendent S. W. Clawson of the Copper Queen company, said: "It was a terrible accident but such accidents are not uncommon where a bucket hoist is used and it was but a short time ago that just such a thing occurred up in Colorado and six miners lost their lives."

Frank Bowman is a young man about 16 years old, and has two brothers in Bisbee. Alex Duder is well known in the Copper Queen mine for nearly a year prior to his going over to the Bisbee West.

Foremost among the matters scheduled for action is the ratification of the purchase of the capital stock and bonds of the Pease Valley & Northwestern railway and capital stock and first mortgage bonds and capital stock of the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix railway. The latter system will be an important acquisition for the Santa Fe. It extends from Ash Fork to Prescott and Phoenix, Arizona, and with its branches has an aggregate length of 250 miles.

These properties were conveyed to the Atchison company in pursuance of the policy heretofore followed of consolidating and unifying the system by vesting in the company, as far as possible and practicable, the legal title to the various lines embraced in its system.

The meeting is also called upon to elect three directors to succeed B. B. Cheney, G. C. Haven and J. G. McCullough, whose terms of office have expired.

Wait, Coming Sure!

A good many people have been too poor to marry, and how any one can be too rich to marry may seem an impossibility, but how such conditions are possible, can be seen in the picture comedy, "Too Rich To Marry," coming to the Opera House soon.
